Altamonte Springs Police Bust Gambling Ring

The Altamonte Springs Police Department's Special Investigation Unit concluded a 2 month illegal gambling investigation today. The investigation began back in January, after the unit received an anonymous CrimeLine tip. Since then the investigation revealed two major locations, where large scale gambling was occurring within the City limits.

On Friday, March 22, 2013 members of the Street Crimes Unit, Detectives Bureau, and Special Investigations Unit simultaneously executed search warrants at 803 Borde Del Camino Dr and 674 Sandy Neck Lane, Unit #104 where the gambling was occurring.

Stemming from the warrants, was the evidence needed to arrest the organizers of the gambling games, Andrew Poirier dob 02/27/1992 and Roberto Torres dob 01/31/1969 who was arrested today.

Both Poirier and Torres were charged with multiple counts of establishing a place of gambling and booked into the Seminole County Jail. Torres was also charge with possession of drug equipment and possession of marijuana with intent to sell.
